UNIVERSITIES OF WISCONSIN

Universities of Wisconsin
Application for Undergraduate Admission

General Information and Instructions

Use the electronic Universities of Wisconsin Admission Pathway Portal (apply.wisconsin.edu) or this form to apply for undergraduate admission to any UW university. Before submitting a paper application, check with the UW university you are interested in to confirm that they accept paper applications for admission. If you wish to apply for admission to more than one UW university, submit a separate application form to each UW university. Duplicated copies may be used as long as they are legible and the proper institution is designated on each copy. Each copy must bear an original signature. Detach the application form and submit the completed application to the admissions office at the institution to which you are applying (see page 3 for addresses).

Detailed instructions for completing this application are found inside this document. If you are a Wisconsin high school student participating in Direct Admit Wisconsin, you do not need to complete an application.

For additional assistance, contact or consult:

- Your high school counselor.
- The Admissions Office at the institution(s) to which you are applying.
- The Universities of Wisconsin application support office at 1-800-442-6459, 711 for Wisconsin Relay, or on the web at: wisconsin.edu and contact@go.wisconsin.edu.
- The Veterans Services Office at the institution to which you are applying for assistance with active military/veteran benefits.

Application deadlines

The Universities of Wisconsin begin accepting applications on August 1 for the following fall semester. Most have application priority dates or deadlines after which applications may no longer be considered, so it is generally to your advantage to apply as early as possible. You are encouraged to obtain application priority dates and deadlines from each institution to which you are applying.

FIRST-YEAR APPLICANTS

Application Fee: The following UW universities charge an application fee for every application submitted: UW-Eau Claire ($25), UW-La Crosse ($25), and UW-Madison ($80). For the other UW universities, there is no cost to apply for admission.

First-year students applying for admission must pay a nonrefundable application fee (if required) with each application submitted. The fee is good for one year (two semesters and a summer session). A separate check or money order, payable to the institution(s) to which you are applying, must accompany each application. Do not send cash.

Financial Needs-Based Application Fee Waiver: If an application fee presents a financial hardship, you can indicate a need for a fee waiver in the application.

Transcripts: A transcript of your complete high school record (beginning with grade 9) is required. If you are still enrolled in high school, submit your completed application form(s) and high school transcript(s) to the UW university or universities to which you are applying. If you have already graduated, contact your high school to have an official transcript sent to each UW university to which you are applying. If you have a GED/HSED, you will need to have an official score report sent in addition to an official high school transcript.

Test Scores: ACT and SAT scores are not required. Students who apply for undergraduate admission through Summer 2028 term may choose whether or not they wish to submit ACT or SAT test scores as part of their application materials. If you choose to provide test scores, they may be considered as part of the admission process.

Courses in Progress: If you are still attending high school, be sure to complete Section E of this form. If you are taking college courses while in high school, list them in Section F. AP, IB, and PLTW courses do not count as college-level courses.

Letter of recommendation: A letter of recommendation is not required for admission to a UW university. Exception: UW-Madison requires a single letter from an academic source such as a teacher, school counselor, or faculty member.

TRANSFER APPLICANTS

Application Fee: The following UW universities charge an application fee for every application submitted: UW-Eau Claire ($25), UW-La Crosse ($25), and UW-Madison ($80). For the other UW universities, there is no cost to apply for admission.

This fee is not required if your last institution attended as a degree-seeking student was a UW university within the past year. The application fee is required if you previously attended only as a special (non-degree seeking) student. The fee is good for one year (two semesters and a summer session). A separate check or money order, payable to the institution(s) to which you are applying, must accompany each application. Do not send cash.

Financial Needs-Based Application Fee Waiver: If an application fee presents a financial hardship, you can indicate a need for a fee waiver in the application.

Transcripts: An official transcript of your complete high school record (beginning with grade 9) and transcripts from all post-secondary institutions you have attended are required. Contact your high school and each previously attended institution to request that official transcripts be sent to the UW university or universities to which you are applying. If you have a GED/HSED, you will also need to have an official score report sent.

Test Scores: ACT and SAT scores are not required. Students who apply for undergraduate admission through Summer 2028 term may choose whether or not they wish to submit ACT or SAT test scores as part of their application materials. If you choose to provide test scores, they may be considered as part of the admission process.

Letter of recommendation: A letter of recommendation is not required for admission to a UW university. Exception: UW-Madison requires a single letter from an academic source such as a teacher, school counselor, or faculty member.

RE-ENTRY APPLICANTS

Application Fee: The application fee is not required if you are applying to a UW university you have previously attended as a degree-seeking student.

Transcripts: You do not need to resubmit your high school transcripts. However, if you have attended any college or university since you last attended the institution you now wish to reenter, you must request official transcripts from these institutions.

Test Scores: Not required.

High School Information: You do not need to complete Section E.

Courses in Progress: If you are currently enrolled at a college or university, be sure to complete Section F of this application.

INTERNATIONAL APPLICANTS

International applicants are required to provide a non-U.S. permanent home address when applying for admission. In addition to an application fee and official transcripts, you will be required to provide other documents to complete your application. Use the information found on page 3 of this application to communicate with the UW university of interest.

SPECIAL / NON-DEGREE APPLICANTS

Each UW university has separate procedures for the admission of students who are interested in enrolling in undergraduate-level courses without formally entering a degree program. Some institutions use a different application form for students in this category. Consult the appropriate UW university for specific information about admission, deadlines and the correct form to use.

Use and Disclosure of U.S. Social Security or Other Taxpayer Identification Number: Federal law allows the University to request and use your Social Security Number (SSN) or other Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN) for routine record keeping, institutional statistics and research, and compliance with Federal and State reporting requirements. Although providing the SSN or TIN is not required for admission to the University, it is required for financial aid and ensures that you will be able to claim the new educational tax benefits, if eligible, on your federal tax return. The University may use the SSN or TIN for billing and collection efforts, financial aid, internal verification and administrative purposes.

The SSN or TIN is protected under the Federal Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. 552a) and the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) (20 U.S.C. 1232g) and will only be disclosed as provided above or with the student's consent or as otherwise required or permitted by law.

Use and Disclosure of Racial/Ethnic Information: The U.S. Department of Education (DOE) requires the University to report the number of students in various racial/ethnic categories. Your cooperation in providing accurate information will be appreciated.

Racial/ethnic heritage information will be treated as confidential and will not appear on academic records, grade reports, class lists or transcripts. Individual student racial/ethnic information will be released only with the student's consent or as otherwise permitted by law.

Services for Veterans: For the purposes of this application only, a veteran is a former or current member of the United States Military. Veterans no longer serving need to have been discharged in good standing. Eligibility for benefits or services will vary based upon the individual's specific level of service. Please note that other agencies or applications may use a different definition to establish veteran status.

The Universities of Wisconsin are approved to offer veterans' educational benefits under programs provided by the U.S Department of Veterans Affairs and the Wisconsin Department of Veterans Affairs. There are also programs and benefits that provide services to spouses and children of those who have or are currently serving in the U.S Military.

For information on veterans' educational benefits, contact the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs Education Service at 800-827-1000 or visit their website at www.gibill.va.gov.
